

CIEH Food Safety Conference

Programme day two: Thursday 10 July 2025

09.15 Registration and online login

09.30 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Sandra Moore CenvH MCIEH, Director of Safety & Compliance Services, Hygenisys, and Food Advisory Panel Member for CIEH

09.35 Update on the future of regulation – delivered by the FSA

Speaker: Nathan Barnhouse, Head of Regulatory Compliance, Food Standards Agency (FSA)

10.10 New rules, old risks: what food safety teams need to know about pest control in 2025

- Update on pest risk assessments, general licensing updates around birds, environmental risk assessment requirements and glue boards update

Speaker: Niall Gallagher Technical and Compliance Manager, British Pest Control Association (BPCA)

10.45 Comfort break & sponsorship videos

11.05 Enforcing eggcellence: Best practice egg sourcing and handling for food safety professionals

- With imported eggs on the rise, and ongoing food safety outbreaks linked to eggs produced in Europe and beyond, Sterling looks at what is happening and how EHPs can help ensure foodservice operators can maintain the highest standards of food safety when it comes to sourcing, handling and serving eggs.

Speaker: Sterling Crew, Public Health Advocate

11.30 A decade after the horsemeat scandal: progress, challenges and lessons learned

Speaker: Andy Quinn, Head of the National Food Crime Unit, Food Standards Agency (FSA)

12.05 Sponsorship session – Safe to Trade

12.30 Managing outbreaks: changing the landscape of listeriosis outbreak direction and response in the UK

Speaker: Dr Gauri Godbole, Consultant Medical Microbiologist and Parasitologist, UKHSA

13.10 Closing remarks

13.15 End of conference

Key sponsors

osborne
richardson

SAFE TO TRADE