

CIEH ASB Conference: New Powers and Responsibilities

Half-day conference: Wednesday 25 June 2025

09.15 Registration and online login

09.30 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Ian Andrews, Head of Environmental Health, Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH)

Keynote: The Crime and Policing Bill 2024-25

09.35 Breaking it down: a comprehensive overview of the Bill

- Review of the current situation – special focus on ASB. Addressing the new Respect Orders (which may overlap with CPNs), guidance around fly-tipping using the existing powers under the Environmental Protection Act 1990, and more

Speaker: Rebecca Bryant OBE, Chief Executive, Resolve

10.15 Key changes and implications for current legislation and what it means for environmental health

- Further discussion on key changes from the Bill, raising challenges or concerns on the impact for EHOs and local authorities from current proposals. Addressing proposed measures to support local authorities

Speakers:

- Tim Everett LLB LLM PhD FCIEH CMCIH FRSPH CEnvH, Trainer and Researcher in Environmental Health Law
- Kuljit Bhogal KC, Public Law Barrister, Cornerstone Barristers

11.00 Comfort break & sponsorship videos

11.15 The use of Community Protection Notices: reflections from research

- Presentation will examine trends in CPN usage in England and Wales, detail practitioners' experiences of the issuing process, highlight recipients' voices, and consider process-based models and compliance

Speaker: Dr Vicky Heap SFHEA, Associate Professor in Criminology, Sheffield Hallam University

12.00 LGA's 2024 ASB survey: insights and progress update

Speaker: James Alexander, Local Government Association (LGA)

12.40 Turning the tide on fly-tipping: a case study in prevention and enforcement

Speaker: James Johnson, Regulation & Enforcement Manager at Lichfield District Council and CIEH Trustee

13.10 Closing remarks

13.15 End of conference

Sponsored by

