

CIEH Housing and Health Conference

Programme day two: Thursday 22 May 2025

09.15 Registration and online login

09.30 Welcome and introduction

Chair: TBC

09.35 E3G – Research on how the government should support local authorities on energy efficiency reports

Speaker: TBC

10:10 What is the health impact of selective licensing schemes for the PRS in England?

- Detailed context and discussion into the National Evaluation of the Health and Social Impacts of Selective Licensing for Private Rented Housing in England research project
- Links to mental health, crime and ASB – what has been found? Discussing the findings/qualitative data from the England study

Speakers:

- Professor Matthew Egan, Professor of Public Health at London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine University of London
- Dr Jill Stewart CenvH FCIEH FRSPH CIHM SFHEA AFPH, Associate Professor in Public Health, University of Greenwich
- TBC

11:15 Comfort break & sponsorship videos

11.35 Proposed reforms to the National Planning Policy Framework – how does this affect the PRS?

Speaker: TBC

12:00 Illegal/poor premises conversions – what is the latest with this?

Speaker: TBC

12:40 First-tier Tribunal interaction – how to maximise success

Speaker: TBC

13:15 Case study: TBC

13.40 Closing remarks

13.45 End of conference

Key sponsors

